

1. The first thing we do

make sure all the parts we need to use are working properly.

Larger Image

2. Then we go ahead and take all the un-needed electronics out leaving the parts needed to just operate

Larger Image

3. After the radio is gutted we clean the radio as much as we dare if needed. Then it's time to mount the

Larger Image

4. Now that the radio is all wired and everything is secure. We go ahead and test it to make sure everyth

Larger Image

5. Finally the radio is done. It now has AM/FM and 180 watts of power. The radio will sound so much be

Larger Image

Larger Image

Larger Image

3. After the radio is gutted we clean and paint the radio if needed. Then it's time to mount the board and

Larger Image

4. Now that the radio is all wired and everything is secure. We go ahead and test it to make sure everyth

Larger Image

5. Finally the radio is done. It now has AM/FM and 180 watts of power. The radio will sound so much be

Larger Image

Larger Image

Larger Image

3. After the radio is gutted we clean and paint the radio if needed. Then it's time to mount the board and

Larger Image

4. Now that the radio is all wired and everything is secure. We go ahead and test it to make sure everyth

Larger Image

5. Finally the radio is done. It now has AM/FM and 180 watts of power. The radio will sound so much be

Larger Image

1. The first thing we do is open the radio up and make sure all the parts we need to use are working properly.

Larger Image

2. Then we go ahead and take all the unneeded electronics out leaving the parts needed to just operate the radio.

Larger Image

3. After the radio is gutted we clean and paint the radio if needed. Then it's time to mount the board and

Larger Image

4. Now that the radio is all wired and everything is secure. We go ahead and test it to make sure everyth

Larger Image

5. Finally the radio is done. It now has AM/FM and 180 watts of power. The radio will sound so much be

Larger Image

1. The first thing we do is open the radio up and make sure all the parts we need to use are working properly.

Larger Image

2. Then we go ahead and take all the unneeded electronics out leaving the parts needed to just operate the radio.

Larger Image

3. After the radio is gutted we clean and paint the radio if needed. Then it's time to mount the board and

Larger Image

4. Now that the radio is all wired and everything is secure. We go ahead and test it to make sure everyth

Larger Image

5. Finally the radio is done. It now has AM/FM and 180 watts of power. The radio will sound so much be

Larger Image

1. The first thing we do

make sure all the parts we need to use are working properly

Larger Image

2. Then we go ahead and take all the un needed electronics out leaving the parts needed to just operate

Larger Image

3. After the radio is gutted we clean and paint the radio if needed. Then it's time to mount the board and

Larger Image

4. Now that the radio is all wired and everything is secure. We go ahead and test it to make sure everyth

Larger Image

5. Finally the radio is done. It now has AM/FM and 180 watts of power. The radio will sound so much be

Larger Image